

EQUESTRIAN PATHWAYS

While enrolled at Porter's, equestrians are able to develop their horsemanship skills through affiliations with area barns. This collaborative approach allows us to support comprehensive instruction while exposing students to a network of facilities and equestrian professionals in order to best meet their individual needs.

Area Facilities

Avon Valley Show Stables, Avon, CT

- Hosts the Miss Porter's School IEA Team.
- Specializes in hunter/jumper/equitation disciplines.
- Indoor arena and outdoor arena equipped with evening lighting.
- Hunt and cross country courses.
- Experienced trainers with competition backgrounds.
- Offers boarding, sales, leasing, lessons, showing.
- School transportation provided for lessons via the partnership between Porter's and AVSS.

Folly Farm, Simsbury, CT

- Full service hunter/jumper/equitation facility.
- Two indoor riding arenas and outdoor riding ring with a state of the art watering system.
- Experienced trainers with competition backgrounds.
- Offers boarding, sales, leasing, lessons, showing, and an IEA Team.
- School transportation provided for weekday lessons at the discretion of School.

Metro Stables, Granby, CT

- Specializes in hunter/jumper/equitation disciplines.
- Indoor arena and outdoor arena.
- Offers boarding, leasing, sales, lessons, and showing.
- Transportation must be arranged independently and at the cost of the rider's family.

Please note that Miss Porter's School does not promote, recommend, or support any particular facility over another, and students are not limited to riding exclusively at the barns with which we have affiliations.

Structure

Students may participate in a combination of:

- Scheduled riding lessons up to 4-5 times per week at the area facility of choice.
- Additional lessons on weekends, scheduled individually.
- Participation (for Porter's team credit) on a Show and/or IEA Team.

Fees and Billing

- Students/families contract directly with the barn of their choice for services, scheduling, and fees.
- Miss Porter's School does not participate in fee negotiations, billing, or payment processes.